

SUN COUNTRY McDonnell Douglas DC-10-40

Sun Country Airlines, in which 51% of the stock is owned by Mainline Travels, which in turn is owned by Northwest Airlines, specializes in vacation charters to Florida, the Caribbean, Denver, Las Vegas, Anchorage and Stansted. Started by ex-Braniff pilots, the first charter commenced on January 20, 1983 between Sioux Falls and Las Vegas. N144JC, formerly of Jet 24, is seen departing in the early morning air in the new "bill-board" color scheme.
